Policy on Discipline

FISAT ensures that students remain focused and motivated towards their studies as well as other fields of their life by maintaining discipline on campus.

Induction program of the newly joined students to include familiarization with the rules and regulations of the college and hostels. Whenever rules are amended the students are to be notified through circulars and announcements. Disciplinary committee shall ensure discipline in the college premises. Hostel wardens are to monitor discipline in the hostels. Individual teachers are accountable for classroom discipline. All teachers are required to act in case of any indiscipline from students. In case of serious disciplinary incidents Principle constitutes an enquiry committee and takes appropriate actions as per the committee's findings. Proper awareness regarding rules and regulations are to be imparted to the students along with the need for adhering to the same. Repeated violators of the rules should be counselled by the mentor and their parents are asked to meet the mentor and HOD if required.
